Rich Lindsey, your personal fishing guide

Happy client with a 30 lb. lake trout

Priest Lake at sunrise

Welcome to Blue Ribbon Charters, & Priest Lake Let's go fishing!!!

With Blue Ribbon Charters you are going to have 1 of your life. You will be catching trout like you've dreamed about. These beauties are just waiting for the crystal clear waters of Priest Lake.

All you have to do is get here with your Idaho fish license, 'cause we'll do the rest. We furnish the boat all the gear. This is guided trout fishing at its best going to have fun!

Rich Lindsey personally books and guides all fishing adventures, and takes great pride in delivering exactly what you expect. There are no surprises! Everyone welcome, from the seasoned fishing veteran, right the youngsters. Priest Lake is an excellent destination for the serious angler looking for that "Trophy Trout" of a lifetime, or as an excellent added activity to your Idaho vacation.

Rich has been successfully guiding anglers in the 1 Panhandle since 1974. He has extensive guiding experience on the lakes surrounding the Coeur d' Idaho area, but has always favored Priest Lake. He is focusing his efforts there, offering the best deepwater trout fishing available. At almost 20 miles in length the pristine waters of Priest Lake are home to the current Record Lake Trout of 57 lbs. 8 ozs. Most of the trout you will catch will weigh an honest 4 to 10 lbs. You will have honest opportunities to catch and release Lake Trout that weigh in excess of 20 to over 45 lbs. The average angler produces from 8 to sometimes over 40 trout per trip. The average trip is about catching lots of trout!

Rich has an uncanny ability to produce wonderful results on a daily basis. It is an extremely rare occurrence to fail. On those rare occasions, Rich will gladly refund your party at no extra charge for your return trip.

The information below provides a summary of camping facilities in the Priest Lake area and outlines the state and federal procedures for their respective campsite reservations. More detailed information for the developed campgrounds on the west side of Priest Lake is available at the USFS web site (www.reserveUSA.com) and at the Idaho Department of Parks & Recreation web site (www.idahoparks.org) for the east side campgrounds.

A wide variety of camping options are available to the visitor to Priest Lake. Approximately 435 developed RV/camping sites and an additional 83 camping only sites are available in the immediate Priest Lake area. Of these, over 400 are managed by either the USFS Priest Lake Ranger District or Priest Lake State Park. There are nearly 70 USFS campsites located on the Priest Lake islands. These are obviously accessible only by boat and offer a unique camping experience. The developed public campgrounds include one (Priest Lake State Park-Dickens Unit) are located on the shoreline of Priest Lake or Upper Priest Lake.

Some campgrounds have a beach and swimming area. There are four campgrounds on the shore of Upper Priest Lake. These are accessible only via hiking trail or watercraft. The Priest Lake Ranger District also manages numerous less developed, dispersed campsites throughout the forested areas on the west and north of Priest Lake.

RVs (motor homes, campers & trailers) are welcome at the public campgrounds; however, hook-ups are available only at the Indian Creek Unit of Priest Lake State Park (Indian Creek White Pine Campgrounds). Full and partial RV hook-ups are also available at many of the private RV/Camping parks. See the RV Section of the Lodging page for particulars.

Priest Lake Ranger District

General Information

There are five USFS maintained shoreline campgrounds on the west side of Priest Lake: Osprey, Luby Bay, Reeder Bay, and Beaver Creek. All of these campgrounds have either vault toilets, picnic tables, fire rings, grills, garbage receptacles, a 14-day stay limit, and an additional fee is charged for an extra vehicle. Dogs must be on leash at all times and are not allowed on beach areas. Camp hosts are provided at most campgrounds. All campgrounds are open from May 15 through the end of September - weather permitting.

Reeder Bay Campground remains open through hunting season, although the water is off in September.

The USFS also maintains four developed campgrounds along the shoreline of Upper Priest Lake. They are accessed only via hiking or watercraft and are PACK-IT-IN PACK-IT-OUT campgrounds.

Another USFS offering is the unique experience of camping on Priest Lake islands. The seven islands are open for camping and each offers a different experience. Because of small size and fragile nature, camping is prohibited on Papoose, and both East and West Islands. There are no camping facilities on Eightmile Island and it is used primarily as a day use area. Each island campground is located on beachfront property. Porta-potties are required at all island sites that do not have vault toilets. This requirement is waived if you have a self-contained, operational toilet facility aboard your boat. A free SCAT machine is located at the Kalispell boat launch (Map #9) to dispose of waste. The islands are all PACK-IT-IN PACK-IT-OUT sites and burning of garbage is strictly prohibited. Island camping is a special experience and it is every camper's responsibility to exercise great care in the preservation of the island environment for the enjoyment of future generations. You can expect periodic visits from the Island Ranger. The ranger is responsible for collecting fees and ensuring campers understand and comply with campground regulations.

- Beach area.
- Accessible only via watercraft or hiking.

BOTTLE BAY CAMPGROUND: Although this campground is located on Bottle Bay on Priest Lake, it shares the same characteristics as the Upper Priest Lake campgrounds. It has seven campsites and is located on the northwestern shore of Priest Lake, approximately 2-1/2 miles from the northern end of the lake.

Dispersed Campgrounds Information

The Priest Lake Ranger District has designated numerous dispersed camping sites generally to the west and northwest of Priest Lake. These sites are undeveloped and have few, if any, amenities. A dispersed camping area map is available at the Priest Lake Ranger Station. The following points apply to all dispersed camping sites.

- Camping at the same site is limited to 14 consecutive days during any one month.
- All sites are PACK-IT-IN PACK-IT-OUT no trace camping.
- No drinking water available; boil all water from streams for at least 10 minutes.
- Be aware of bear safety.

STAGGER INN CAMPGROUND (Map #14): Although this campground is not designated as a dispersed campsite per se, it is located in the same area as other designated dispersed campgrounds. Stagger Inn Campground is located at the Roosevelt Grove of Ancient Cedars, 12 miles north of Priest Lake.

- 4 developed campsites; first-come, first-served.
- Vault toilets.
- All sites have tables; fire pits; no drinking water.

Campground Reservations

Sixty percent of the individual campsites at Reeder Bay, Upper & Lower Luby Bay and I Creek, as well as the Beaver Creek Group Site, can be reserved through the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS). Access to NRRS is available through the Internet www.reserveUSA.com; via toll free telephone at (877) 444-6777 / TDD (877) 833-6777 international telephone (518) 885-3639. The web site also provides detailed information on each campground and a campground map with specific campsite locations. This is the only way in which you can reserve a campsite.

Through the NRRS, reservations for USFS and Corps Of Engineer recreational campsite cabins, federal wilderness area activities, etc. can be made on a nation-wide basis. The telephonic reservation center is operational 6 am-6pm (PST) Mon-Fri and 8 am-4pm (PST) weekends. Reservations via the NRRS Internet web site can be made at any time.

Getting Here

When we say "Way Up North in Idaho", it is an accurate description of the location of Priest Lake.

Approximately 25 miles "as the crow flies" from the Canadian border, Priest Lake is on the way to NOWHERE!! - you go 'TO' Priest Lake, but never 'THROUGH' Priest Lake enroute to other destinations. Therein lies one of the geographic characteristics that make the area a premier vacation destination. You will be immersed in a magnificent combination of mountains, forests, and lakes, but you won't be inundated by crowds and casual sightseers 'just passing through!' Priest Lake is just remote enough to afford ample space to pursue any recreational endeavor without infringing on others -- or being infringed upon by others, but not too remote to make your visit a primitive experience - unless that is your goal. Priest Lake is a unique blend of nature and space with enough modern conveniences to make a visit most enjoyable. Your vacation can be at an award winning luxury resort or at a primitive camp in a wilderness area -- or anything between.

With fewer than 160 total resort/motel rooms than 450 developed RV/camping sites, and multi-family housing units in the area, Priest ensures the solitude, space and peace to er of Mother Nature's masterpieces. On the of if a slightly faster pace is on your agenda, th recreation businesses in the area, (all of whi family owned and operated) will provide opp for those high energy activities tailored to all groups.

BY AUTOMOBILE - To drive to Priest Lake you must eventually travel on US Highway 2 to the city of Priest River. At the one and only traffic light in Priest River, turn north off US Hwy 2 onto ID State Highway 57. A scenic journey of approximately 25 miles will lead you into the Priest Lake area. The Priest Lake Chamber of Commerce maintains a visitors kiosk at the Mile Post #22 Rest Stop for those who desire additional information on the : Spokane is the major metropolitan city that serves the region and it is about 80 miles sc Priest Lake.

BY PLANE - The nearest commercial airport is Spokane International Airport located approximately 90 miles from the Priest Lake area.

Two airstrips suitable for small aircraft and one seaplane base are located in the immed vicinity of Priest Lake. On the west side, the USFS Priest Lake Ranger District maintain Priest Lake USFS Airport which is a 4,600-ft grass airstrip located across Highway 57 from headquarters at MP 32. On the east side, Ca Bay Airport, a 3,100-foot grass airstrip, is lo the south end of Cavanaugh Bay adjacent to Department of Lands office. These airstrips d have air traffic control facilities and they are r maintained during the winter season. Both air have ample parking space and nearby resort free transportation.

With 23,000 acres of water surface on Priest Lake, there is more than ample room for float plane arrivals / departures. Some of the major resorts also have docking and securing capabilities. Be sure to coordinate with the resort if you plan on docking your float plane during the duration of your stay. In addition, the Tanglefoot Seaplane Base located on the west shore of Cavanaugh Bay provides an excellent base of operations for float plane visits.

The nearest asphalt surfaced runways are in the cities of Priest River (2,950' runway) a Sandpoint (5,500' runway).

BY TRAIN & BOAT - Sorry, missed this on a few decades. In yesteryear, a major rail transportation link from metropolitan areas River was popular; then you could experie humbling, all-day stage coach ride to Coolin overnight stay; then to your resort the next row boat! OH MY, THE GOOD OL' DAYS!!

Full Service Marina, Boat Storage, Restaurant / Bar, Moorage, Dockside Grocery Store, Fuel, RV Park with 11 spaces and hook-ups, 130 Boat Slips, Boat Launch Ramp.

Attachments: Download additional information \(PDF\)

Facilities: Priest Lake Marina consists of an existing Marina (130 Boat Slips) with Service Center, Boat Storage, Bar / Restaurant, RV Park with 11 spaces and hook-ups, Dockside Grocery Store, Fuel and Boat Launch Ramp. All on about 8 acres of leased forest service land. The site is located on the west side of Priest Lake, about 30 miles north of Priest River, Idaho. Two acres have been recently added to the leased site to be used for boat trailer storage (this location is off site from the marina)

Competition: Priest Lake Marina has been in business for 50 years. It has a great reputation, loyal clientele and is in a prime location on Priest Lake. The permits last termination was on December 31, 2004 and was reissued until December 31, 2035.

Growth/Expansion: A new building could be built to accommodate overnight lodging (new permit), but with the addition of overnight lodging, the RV Park would be removed. New proposed beach renovations have been approved on the new permit to build a covered picnic pavilion and a new restroom/changing room/shower building near the beach.

Priest Lake State Park

Attractions > East Side

Priest Lake State Park consists of three separate park units: Indian Creek Unit, located on East Lakeshore Road approximately 12 miles north of Coolin; Lionhead Unit located approximately 23 miles north of Coolin, also on the East Lakeshore Road; and Dickensheet Unit, located four miles south of Coolin, nestled along the banks of Priest River. Both Indian Creek and Lionhead are located on the shore of Priest Lake. Each of these units has camping facilities. See the CAMPGROUNDS page of this web site for specific camping information.

Indian Creek Unit is located on the former site of a large Diamond Match Company logging camp. The logging camp was the terminus of a 3-mile log flume that was used to transport logs to the lake in the 1940s and '50s. The park headquarters is located at Indian Creek and the unit is open year-round. In addition to the camping facilities, Indian Creek has extensive day-use facilities and a superb summer activities program from Memorial Day through Labor Day. These summer activities include guided nature hikes, a campfire program, a junior ranger program and numerous other organized athletic and recreational programs. The park also has a picnic area, a boat launch, a beautiful sandy beach with a large designated swimming area, and a park store for all those last minute items you forgot to bring with you. In the winter, Indian Creek is an excellent point to access the 400 miles of groomed snowmobile trails that surround the lake. The park also offers 8 kilometers of groomed x-country ski trails. The daily non-camping motor vehicle entry fee is $2.00 - a tremendous bargain considering the wide range of facilities and activities available.

Lionhead Unit consists of 415 acres located on the shores of Mosquito Bay and Squaw Bay at the northern end of the lake. It was the site of the Ne Shipman movie studio during the 1920s. The Shipman Point Trail, which takes you through a unique grove of old-growth timber, is named in his honor. Near the boat ramp, you can view the underwater remains of the Tye II, a steam powered logging tug used on the lake in the late 1940s and early 50s. Lionhead has been developed with an orientation towards tent camping and offers a more primitive camping experience compared to Indian Creek. The unit also has day-use facilities, a boat launch, a 1/4-mile sandy beach and a designated swimming area. The Squaw Bay group camping facility is located at the south end of the Lionhead Unit. This rustic, isolated retreat has 1,000 feet of 'private' sandy beach, and includes both kitchen and shower facilities. It can accommodate up to 50 people. The Lionhead Unit is open from May 1 through September 30. Like Indian Creek, the daily non-camping entrance fee is $2.00.

Dickensheet Unit is the smallest of the three units (46 acres). It offers only eleven primitive camping facilities and is not suitable for large recreational vehicles. Tables and fire grills are available at each camp site; however, no drinking water is available. Dickensheet is an excellent launch site for float trips down Priest River. The unit is open from May 1 through September 30.

Water Sports

Priest Lake is often termed Idaho's "Crown Jewel" lake because of its exceptionally clean, clear and deep water. As the sun's rays warm the water after the snow season, the lake begins its annual transformation into the premier water sports playground in the region. Priest Lake has 23,000 surface acres and nearly 80 miles of shoreline to meet the needs of even the most demanding water sports activities. Be you a power boater with skier or wake boarder in tow, paddle boater, personal watercraft zealot, kayaker, canoeist or sailboat enthusiast, Priest Lake has ample area to easily accommodate all boating activities without conflict. You simply won't find crowded launch ramps, congested boat traffic or long waits to obtain marina service Priest Lake.

North of the main lake, boaters can travel the 2-mile Thorofare that links Priest Lake to Upper Priest Lake. The 1,300-acre Upper Lake is nestled in a magnificent setting with mountains surrounding the entire lake. Sightseeing, camping, picnicking on a sandy beach simply enjoying the beauty of Mother Nature's work are some of the popular Upper Lake activities. All water sport activities that involve towing (skiing, wake boarding etc) are prohibited on the Upper Lake and on the Thorofare. Additionally, all watercraft are required to traverse the Thorofare at "no wake" speed. These restrictions make the Thorofare and Upper Priest Lake an ideal playground for canoeing and kayaking.

More than a dozen boat launches are located around the lake. Most resorts and marinas have gas available as well as boat rentals and other boating services. Kayak, canoe and houseboat rentals are also available through recreation, guide and rental services. The guide services also offer a variety of canoeing, kayaking and fishing packages. Check the web links below for specifics or request a Priest Lake Visitor's Guide from the Chamber of Commerce office at (888) 774-3785.
