Re: Support for Tom Rider

Date: February 13, 2002

Expenses:

The Wildlife Advocacy Project received a check for $6,000 from the ASPCA on December 26, 2002. That donation represented the first quarter of a grant of $24,000 to cover Tom Rider traveling expenses. That quarter began on January 1, 2002 as the ASPCA wanted the grant to comport to their budget.

Lisa has suggested that after March 10, 2002, the ASPCA be responsible for Tom's expenses and the Wildlife Advocacy Project will not have any further duties regarding Tom's expenses. However, Tom tells me that Karen will oversee him full time beginning immediately. At that time, the ASPCA can direct deposit funds into Tom's Western Union account.

Computer:

Tom will get a new laptop from ASPCA, since the computer that was given to Tom by a local activist has died.

Telephone:

ASPCA will continue to pay for all of Tom's cell phone expenses. Originally, we thought we would be billed for Tom's phone expenses, but Lisa has assured us that we will not be billed for any of Tom's phone expenses. However, Tom still needs to have a cell phone that receives voice mail as it is difficult for Tom to get emails on his laptop while traveling on the bus.
